This information helps us improve platform performance and security.

F. Usage Information

We may collect information regarding how you interact with the Platform, including:

- Pages Visited
- Search Queries
- Listings Viewed
- Saved Properties
- Click Activity
- Session Duration
- Login Activity
- Navigation Behaviour

This information helps us improve user experience.

G. Location Information

With your permission, Dealveel may collect your approximate or precise location to:

- display nearby listings;
- improve search accuracy;
- provide location-based recommendations;
- improve user experience.

You may disable location access through your device or browser settings, although some features may not function properly.

H. Communications

If you contact Dealveel, we may collect:

- emails;
- support requests;
- feedback;
- complaints;
- suggestions;
- responses submitted by you.

Such communications may be retained to improve our services and resolve issues.

I. Information You Voluntarily Provide

You may voluntarily submit additional information while:

- updating your profile;
- editing listings;
- contacting support;
- reporting abuse;
- submitting feedback;
- participating in surveys.

Providing such information is optional unless specifically required for a service.

4. Information We Do Not Intentionally Collect

Dealveel does not intentionally request or require users to submit highly sensitive personal information unless such collection becomes necessary for a specific service and is disclosed separately.

At present, Dealveel does not require users to upload:

- Aadhaar Number;
- PAN Number;
- Passport Details;
- Driving Licence;
- Bank Account Information;
- Debit or Credit Card Details;
- Biometric Information;

for creating a standard user account or publishing a standard listing.

If any such information is requested in the future for a particular feature or verification process, users will be informed through an updated Privacy Policy or a specific notice before collection.

5. Accuracy of Information

Users are responsible for ensuring that the information they provide is accurate, complete and up to date.

Providing false or misleading information may affect the availability of certain features and may result in action under the Dealveel Terms & Conditions.

6. Consent

By registering an account, submitting a listing or using the Platform, you consent to the collection and use of your information as described in this Privacy Policy, subject to applicable law.

Where a specific consent is required for particular features (such as location access), Dealveel will request such consent before collecting the relevant information.

7. How We Use Your Information

Dealveel uses the information collected from Users for legitimate business purposes and to operate, improve and secure the Platform.

Depending upon the services used, your information may be used to:

- create and manage your account;
- verify your mobile number and email address;
- publish and manage your listings;
- display your listings to potential Buyers;
- enable Buyers to contact Sellers;
- provide customer support;
- respond to inquiries and complaints;
- personalise your experience;
- improve search results;
- recommend relevant listings;

- maintain Platform security;
- detect suspicious or fraudulent activities;
- analyse Platform performance;
- develop new features;
- comply with legal obligations;
- enforce our Terms & Conditions.

Dealveel does not sell your personal information to third parties.

8. Communication with Users

Dealveel may contact Users for purposes including:

- OTP verification;
- account verification;
- password reset;
- important security alerts;
- account-related notifications;
- listing status updates;
- responses to support requests;
- legal notices;
- changes to our policies.

We may also send service-related announcements that are necessary for operating the Platform.

9. Marketing Communications

From time to time, Dealveel may send promotional communications relating to:

- new features;
- platform updates;
- special campaigns;
- educational content;
- future services.

Where required by applicable law, Users may opt out of receiving promotional communications.

Service-related communications necessary for operating the Platform may continue even if promotional communications are disabled.

10. Location Services

If you grant permission, Dealveel may access your device location to:

- display nearby properties;
- improve search accuracy;
- show listings around your current location;
- personalise location-based recommendations.

You may withdraw location permission at any time through your browser or device settings.

Certain features may not function correctly without location access.

11. Cookies

Dealveel may use cookies and similar technologies to improve user experience.

Cookies may be used to:

- remember login sessions;
- save user preferences;
- improve website performance;
- understand user behaviour;
- maintain security;
- personalise content.

Users may control or disable cookies through their browser settings.

Disabling cookies may affect certain Platform features.

12. Types of Cookies We May Use

Dealveel may use the following categories of cookies:

Essential Cookies

Required for:

- login;

- security;
- website functionality.

These cookies are necessary for the Platform to operate.

Performance Cookies

Used to understand:

- website performance;
 - loading speed;
 - usage statistics.

Functional Cookies

Used to remember:

- preferences;
 - selected location;
 - saved settings;
 - language preferences (if available).

Analytics Cookies

Used to understand how Users interact with the Platform and improve overall user experience.

13. Analytics

Dealveel may use analytics tools to understand how the Platform is used.

Analytics information may include:

- page visits;
- search behaviour;
- click activity;
- navigation patterns;
- session duration;
- traffic sources;
- device information.

Analytics information is used to improve the Platform and user experience.

14. Log Files

Like many websites, Dealveel may automatically collect log information including:

- IP Address;
- browser type;
- Internet Service Provider;
- date and time of access;
- referring pages;
- exit pages;
- device information;
- error logs.

Log information helps diagnose technical problems, maintain security and improve the Platform.

15. Search History

Dealveel may store search history to:

- improve search performance;
- personalise recommendations;
- help Users quickly repeat previous searches;
- improve platform functionality.

Users may be able to clear search history where such functionality is provided.

16. Saved Listings and Favourites

If a User saves a property or other listing, Dealveel may store this information to:

- display saved listings;
- provide quick access;
- personalise recommendations.

Saved listings remain associated with the User account until removed by the User or deleted in accordance with our policies.

17. Platform Personalisation

Information collected may be used to personalise the Platform by:

- recommending relevant listings;
- displaying nearby properties;
- showing recently viewed listings;
- remembering user preferences.

Personalisation aims to improve the overall user experience.

18. Fraud Prevention

Information collected through the Platform may be used to:

- identify suspicious activities;
- prevent spam;
- detect duplicate accounts;
- investigate abuse;
- protect Users;
- maintain the security and integrity of the Platform.

Dealveel may use reasonable automated or manual processes for these purposes, subject to applicable law.

19. Security Monitoring

Dealveel may monitor Platform activity for the purposes of:

- preventing unauthorised access;
- detecting security incidents;
- protecting User accounts;
- ensuring platform stability.

Such monitoring is carried out solely for legitimate security and operational purposes.

20. Future Mobile Applications

If Dealveel launches Android or iOS applications in the future, the applications may request additional permissions such as:

- camera access;
- photo library access;
- location access;
- notification permissions;

only where necessary for specific features.

Users will be informed of such permissions through the application and applicable app store disclosures.

21. Future Features

As Dealveel introduces new services, including additional marketplace categories or paid features, we may collect additional information necessary to operate those services.

Where required by applicable law, we will update this Privacy Policy or provide additional notices before collecting materially different categories of personal information.

22. Sharing of Information

Dealveel values the privacy of its Users.

We do not sell your personal information to third parties.

However, we may share information only in the circumstances described in this Privacy Policy and where permitted or required by applicable law.

23. Information Shared with Other Users

When you publish a listing, certain information may be visible to other Users, including:

- listing title;
- property description;
- property photographs;
- property videos;
- property location (as provided by you);
- asking price;
- your name (where displayed);
- your contact number (if you choose to display it or reveal it through the Platform).

You are responsible for the information you choose to include in your listings.

24. Service Providers

Dealveel may engage trusted third-party service providers to support the operation of the Platform.

These service providers may assist with services such as:

- website hosting;
- cloud infrastructure;
- email delivery;
- OTP verification;
- customer support;
- analytics;
- security;
- mapping and location services;
- content delivery.

Such providers are given access only to the information reasonably necessary to perform their services for Dealveel.

25. Google Maps and Location Services

Dealveel may use third-party mapping and location services, including Google Maps or similar providers, to display property locations and nearby listings.

When using such features, certain location-related information may be processed by the relevant service provider in accordance with its own privacy policies and terms.

Users should review the applicable policies of those third-party providers before using such services.

26. Analytics Providers

Dealveel may use third-party analytics services to better understand how Users interact with the Platform.

Analytics providers may receive limited technical information such as:

- IP address;
- browser type;
- device information;
- pages visited;
- session duration;
- usage statistics.

This information is used to improve the Platform and user experience.

27. Legal Disclosure

Dealveel may disclose information where required:

- by applicable law;
- by a valid court order;
- by a lawful request from a government authority;
- to protect the rights, safety or property of Dealveel, its Users or the public;
- to investigate fraud, abuse or unlawful activity.

Any disclosure shall be limited to the extent reasonably necessary or legally required.

28. Business Transfers

If Dealveel undergoes:

- merger;
- acquisition;
- restructuring;
- investment transaction;
- sale of assets; or
- other corporate reorganisation,

User information may be transferred as part of that transaction, subject to applicable law.

Users will be informed where legally required.

29. Data Storage

User information may be stored using secure servers and cloud infrastructure operated by Dealveel or its trusted service providers.

Reasonable measures are implemented to protect data from:

- unauthorised access;
 - accidental disclosure;
 - misuse;
 - alteration;
 - destruction.

30. Data Retention

Dealveel retains personal information only for as long as reasonably necessary to:

- provide services;
- maintain User accounts;
- comply with legal obligations;
- resolve disputes;
- prevent fraud;
- enforce our Terms & Conditions;
- protect the Platform.

Retention periods may vary depending on the nature of the information and applicable legal requirements.

31. Account Deletion and Data Retention

If a User requests deletion of their account, Dealveel will process the request in accordance with its Account Deletion Policy.

Certain information may continue to be retained where necessary:

- to comply with legal obligations;
- to resolve disputes;
- to prevent fraud;
- to enforce legal rights;
- to maintain security records.

Deletion of an account does not necessarily result in immediate deletion of all records.

32. Data Security

Dealveel implements reasonable administrative, technical and organisational measures to protect personal information.

Such measures may include:

- encrypted data transmission where appropriate;
- access controls;
- authentication mechanisms;
- server security;
- monitoring systems;
- periodic security improvements.

However, no method of electronic storage or internet transmission can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

33. User Responsibility

Users are responsible for protecting their own account credentials.

Users should:

- keep passwords confidential;
- avoid sharing OTPs;
- log out from shared devices;
- immediately notify Dealveel of suspected unauthorised access.

Dealveel shall not be responsible for losses resulting from a User's failure to safeguard their account.

34. International Data Processing (Future Services)

At present, Dealveel primarily operates within India.

If future services involve processing personal information outside India through trusted service providers, Dealveel will take reasonable steps to ensure that such processing is carried out in accordance with applicable law and appropriate contractual safeguards.

35. Third-Party Websites

The Platform may contain links to third-party websites or services.

Dealveel does not control such third-party websites and is not responsible for:

- their privacy practices;
- their content;
- their security;
- their policies.

Users should review the privacy policies of such third-party websites before providing personal information.

36. Confidentiality

Dealveel limits access to personal information to authorised personnel and service providers who reasonably require such access for operating the Platform.

Such access is subject to appropriate confidentiality obligations where applicable.

37. Your Privacy Rights

Subject to applicable law, Users may have the right to:

- access certain personal information maintained by Dealveel;
- request correction of inaccurate information;

- update profile information;
- request deletion of eligible personal information;
- withdraw consent where processing is based on consent;
- object to certain processing activities where applicable.

Certain requests may be limited where Dealveel is legally required to retain information.

38. Updating Your Information

Users are responsible for ensuring that the information associated with their account remains accurate and up to date.

Where account settings permit, Users may update:

- name;
- profile information;
- email address;
- mobile number;
- listing information;
- preferences.

Certain information may require verification before changes are accepted.

39. Correction Requests

If Users believe that any personal information maintained by Dealveel is inaccurate or incomplete, they may request correction by contacting Dealveel through the official support channels.

Reasonable efforts will be made to review and process such requests within a reasonable period.

40. Withdrawal of Consent

Where processing of personal information is based upon User consent, Users may withdraw such consent at any time.

Withdrawal of consent shall not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out before such withdrawal.

Withdrawal of certain permissions may affect the availability or functionality of some Platform features.

41. Account Deletion Requests

Users may request deletion of their Dealveel account through the methods made available by the Platform or by contacting Dealveel.

Upon receiving a valid request, Dealveel may:

- deactivate the account;
- remove publicly visible profile information where appropriate;
- process deletion in accordance with applicable law and internal retention requirements.

Some information may continue to be retained as described in this Privacy Policy.

42. Effect of Account Deletion

Deletion of an account may result in:

- loss of access to the Platform;
- removal of saved listings;
- removal of account preferences;
- inability to recover certain account information.

Information retained for legal, security or operational reasons may continue to be stored after account deletion where permitted or required by applicable law.

43. Marketing Preferences

Where promotional communications are provided, Users may choose to opt out of receiving such communications through available unsubscribe mechanisms or by contacting Dealveel.

Service-related communications that are necessary for operating the Platform may continue to be sent.

44. Cookie Preferences

Users may manage or disable cookies through their browser settings.

Please note that disabling certain cookies may affect the functionality of the Platform and limit access to certain features.

45. Children's Privacy

Dealveel is intended for individuals who are at least 18 years of age.

The Platform is not directed toward children.

Dealveel does not knowingly collect personal information from children.

If Dealveel becomes aware that personal information relating to a child has been collected unintentionally, reasonable steps may be taken to remove such information, subject to applicable law.

46. User Responsibilities Regarding Privacy

Users are responsible for:

- protecting their account credentials;
- keeping passwords confidential;
- safeguarding OTPs;
- avoiding disclosure of unnecessary personal information within listings;
- ensuring that uploaded content does not infringe the privacy rights of others.

Users should exercise caution while sharing contact information publicly.

47. Complaints and Privacy Concerns

If a User has concerns regarding this Privacy Policy or believes that their personal information has been handled improperly, they may contact Dealveel using the contact details provided in this Privacy Policy.

Dealveel will make reasonable efforts to acknowledge and review genuine complaints within a reasonable time.

48. Grievance Contact

Users may submit privacy-related grievances through the official contact details of Dealveel.

Until an official Grievance Officer is designated and published, Users may contact:

Company: Navpragy Technology Private Limited

Email: info@navpragytechnology.com

Phone: +91 7668015363

Once a Grievance Officer is officially appointed, the Platform may update this section accordingly.

49. Response to Requests

Dealveel will make reasonable efforts to review legitimate privacy-related requests and respond within a reasonable period, subject to:

- identity verification;
- legal obligations;
- technical feasibility;
- operational requirements.

Certain requests may be declined where required or permitted by applicable law.

50. Changes to this Privacy Policy

Dealveel may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect:

- changes in applicable law;

- introduction of new services;
- technological developments;
- changes to business operations;
- improvements to privacy practices.

The updated version will be published on the Platform together with the revised "Last Updated" date.

Continued use of the Platform after publication of the revised Privacy Policy constitutes acceptance of the updated Policy, where permitted by applicable law.

51. Compliance with Applicable Laws

Dealveel is committed to handling personal information in accordance with applicable laws and regulations governing privacy, data protection and electronic communications.

Where applicable, Dealveel may update its privacy practices to comply with changes in law or regulatory requirements.

52. Lawful Processing

Dealveel processes personal information only where there is an appropriate legal basis or a legitimate business purpose under applicable law.

Such purposes may include:

- providing Platform services;
 - maintaining user accounts;
 - protecting the security of the Platform;
 - complying with legal obligations;
 - responding to lawful requests from authorities;
 - improving the Platform and user experience;
 - preventing fraud and misuse.

53. Data Minimisation

Dealveel aims to collect only the information reasonably necessary for providing and improving its services.

We strive not to collect unnecessary personal information.

Where optional information is requested, Users may choose whether to provide such information unless it is required for a specific feature or service.

54. Purpose Limitation

Personal information collected by Dealveel shall be used only for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy or for other compatible purposes permitted by applicable law.

If Dealveel intends to use personal information for a materially different purpose, Users may be informed through an updated Privacy Policy or other appropriate notice where required.

55. Data Accuracy

Dealveel encourages Users to keep their account information accurate and up to date.

Reasonable efforts are made to ensure that personal information used by the Platform remains accurate, taking into account the information provided by Users.

56. Security Incident Response

Dealveel maintains internal procedures intended to detect, investigate and respond to suspected security incidents affecting the Platform.

Where appropriate, such procedures may include:

- investigation of the incident;
 - containment measures;
 - recovery activities;
 - implementation of additional safeguards;
 - cooperation with relevant authorities where legally required.

57. Data Breach Response

If Dealveel becomes aware of a security incident involving personal information, reasonable steps may be taken to investigate and respond to the incident.

Where notification is required under applicable law, Dealveel may notify affected Users and/or competent authorities in accordance with such legal requirements.

58. Confidentiality Obligations

Employees, contractors and authorised service providers who require access to personal information for legitimate business purposes are expected to maintain the confidentiality of such information and use it only as necessary to perform their responsibilities.

59. Business Continuity

Dealveel may maintain backup systems and disaster recovery procedures designed to support continuity of services and protection of information.

Backup copies may be retained for operational and security purposes in accordance with applicable retention practices.

60. Cross-Border Processing (Future Services)

At present, Dealveel primarily operates within India.

If future services involve processing personal information outside India, Dealveel will take reasonable steps to ensure that such processing is carried out with appropriate safeguards and in accordance with applicable law.

61. Corporate Transactions

In the event of:

- merger;

- acquisition;
- investment;
- sale of assets;
- business restructuring; or
- similar corporate transaction,

personal information may be transferred to the relevant successor entity, subject to applicable law.

Users will be informed where legally required.

62. Platform Improvements

Dealveel may analyse information in aggregated or de-identified form to:

- improve Platform performance;
- understand user behaviour;
- develop new features;
- enhance security;
- improve search functionality;
- optimise user experience.

Where information has been aggregated or de-identified so that individuals are no longer reasonably identifiable, it may be used for statistical and analytical purposes.

63. Third-Party Integrations

The Platform may integrate with third-party services for operational purposes, including but not limited to:

- mapping services;
- communication services;
- cloud infrastructure;
- analytics tools;
- authentication services.

Such integrations may process information only to the extent necessary to provide the relevant functionality.

Users should review the privacy practices of those third-party providers where applicable.

64. Platform Security Improvements

Dealveel continually reviews and improves its technical and organisational security measures to protect the Platform and User information.

Security measures may evolve over time in response to technological developments and emerging risks.

65. Future Expansion

As Dealveel expands its services, including additional marketplace categories, mobile applications or premium features, this Privacy Policy may be updated to reflect changes in information collection, use and protection practices.

Users are encouraged to review this Privacy Policy periodically to remain informed of any updates.

66. Privacy Summary

At Dealveel, we are committed to protecting your privacy and handling your personal information responsibly.

In summary:

- We collect only the information reasonably necessary to operate and improve the Platform.
 - We do not sell your personal information to third parties.
 - We use your information to provide services, improve user experience, maintain security and comply with legal obligations.
 - You remain in control of the information you choose to provide through your account and listings.
 - We implement reasonable technical and organisational measures to protect your personal information.
 - We may update this Privacy Policy as our Platform and legal obligations evolve.

67. Your Responsibilities

While Dealveel takes reasonable steps to protect your information, Users are also responsible for:

- maintaining accurate account information;
 - protecting passwords and OTPs;
 - avoiding unnecessary disclosure of sensitive personal information;
 - verifying the identity of other users before sharing confidential information;
 - using the Platform responsibly and lawfully.
