

DEALVEEL COOKIE POLICY

Effective Date: [Launch Date]

Last Updated: [Date]

This Cookie Policy explains how Dealveel ("Dealveel", "We", "Us", or "Our"), operated by Navpragy Technology Private Limited, uses cookies and similar technologies when you visit or use our website.

By continuing to use the Platform, you acknowledge that cookies may be used as described in this Policy, subject to your browser settings and applicable law.

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are stored on your browser or device when you visit a website.

Cookies help websites:

- remember your preferences;
- maintain secure login sessions;
- improve performance;
- understand website usage;
- provide a better user experience.

Cookies do not normally contain information that directly identifies you, although they may be associated with information held about your account.

2. Why Dealveel Uses Cookies

Dealveel uses cookies and similar technologies to:

- keep you signed in;
- remember your preferences;
- improve website performance;
- enhance security;
- analyse Platform usage;
- remember your selected location;

- improve search functionality;
 - support future platform improvements.

3. Types of Cookies We Use

Essential Cookies

These cookies are necessary for the operation of the Platform.

They help:

- authenticate Users;
- maintain login sessions;
- protect account security;
- prevent fraudulent activity.

Without these cookies, certain features of the Platform may not function correctly.

Functional Cookies

These cookies help remember:

- language preferences (if available);
 - selected city or location;
 - user preferences;
 - previously viewed settings.

Performance Cookies

These cookies help us understand how the Platform performs by collecting information such as:

- page loading times;
- technical errors;
- website responsiveness.

This information helps us improve the Platform.

Analytics Cookies

Dealveel may use analytics technologies to understand:

- visitor behaviour;
- pages viewed;
- search activity;
- session duration;
- general Platform usage.

Analytics information helps improve the user experience.

4. Third-Party Cookies

Dealveel may use trusted third-party services that place or access cookies for legitimate operational purposes.

These services may include, where applicable:

- analytics providers;
- mapping services;
- cloud security services;
- authentication services.

Each third-party service operates under its own privacy practices.

5. Google Maps and Similar Services

Where mapping services are provided, such services may place cookies or process certain technical information necessary to display maps and location-based features.

Users should review the privacy policies of the relevant service providers for additional information.

6. Future Advertising Technologies

If Dealveel introduces advertising, remarketing or promotional technologies in the future, additional cookies may be used for those services.

Where required by applicable law, Users will be provided with appropriate choices regarding such cookies.

7. Managing Cookies

Most web browsers allow Users to:

- view stored cookies;
- delete cookies;
- block cookies;
- disable certain categories of cookies.

Cookie settings can usually be managed through your browser preferences.

Please note that disabling essential cookies may affect the functionality of the Platform.

8. Cookie Consent

Where required by applicable law, Dealveel may display a cookie consent banner allowing Users to:

- accept cookies;
- reject non-essential cookies;
- manage cookie preferences.

Your choices may be remembered for future visits.

9. Changes to This Cookie Policy

Dealveel may update this Cookie Policy from time to time.

Updated versions will be published on the Platform together with the revised "Last Updated" date.

Continued use of the Platform after such updates constitutes acceptance of the revised Policy, where permitted by applicable law.
